

fnsox2009 CALL FOR PAPERS

Nietzsche on Mind and Nature

11 – 13 September 2009

St Peter's College, University of Oxford

The Faculty of Philosophy at the University of Oxford will host the 2009 International Conference of the Friedrich Nietzsche Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 11 – 13 September 2009, at St. Peter's College, Oxford.

Keynote speakers include:

Prof. Günter Abel, Faculty of Philosophy, TU Berlin, Germany.
Prof. Brian Leiter, Faculty of Law, University of Chicago, USA.
Prof. Graham Parkes, Faculty of Philosophy, Cork, Ireland.
Prof. Peter Poellner, Faculty of Philosophy, Warwick University, UK.
Prof. Bernard Reginster, Faculty of Philosophy, Brown University, USA.
Prof. John Richardson, Faculty of Philosophy, NYU, USA.
Prof. Galen Strawson, Department of Philosophy, Reading University, UK.

This conference seeks for the first time to consider Nietzsche's philosophy of mind in relation to his philosophical naturalism. We hope to consider papers by Nietzsche experts with a background in analytical or continental philosophy as well as from those working in the fields of philosophy of mind and naturalism with a strong interest in Nietzsche. Potential topics include:

Nietzsche's theory of subjectivity
Intentionality
Consciousness and self-consciousness
Epiphenomenalism
Mind-body problem
Unconsciousness
Self and otherness
Mind as emergent phenomenon
Nietzsche's naturalism
Mind, world, brain
Art, mind, nature

Nietzsche and the body
Memory and self
Nietzsche and biology
Nietzsche and psychology
Awareness, emotion, cognition
Perspectivism and the self
Self-awareness and self-knowledge
Nietzsche and neuroscience
Agency and freedom
Intersubjectivity and value
Narrative/non-narrative self

We invite submissions for 30-minute papers on the above or related topics. Please send an abstract of a maximum of 400 words and a short CV (no longer than one page) via email by 15 March 2009 to fnsox /at/ philosophy.ox.ac.uk. Notification of acceptance will be sent no later than 1 April 2009.
