

Philosophy Lecture Year Plan for 2017-18

- This year plan contains details of undergraduate lectures, graduate classes, and other regular events
- The three columns on the right indicate in which University term(s) each event takes place. The number of lectures or classes for that event in any term is found in the column for that term. (NB: the numbers for lectures/classes represent the hours allotted to the series, which may but need not be the same as the number of lectures/classes. For seminars etc, the number given is the number of events.)
- This information is believed correct as at 3 October 2017, but changes may occur before and during the academic year. Before you make plans for any particular term, it is wise to check the lecture lists online near to the start of term. You are advised to double-check any degree-specific lists (eg the combined PPE lecture list) against the Faculty lists.
- Errors/queries can be addressed here.

<sup>1</sup> Attendance at either series of lectures on Mill will suffice to prepare students for the Prelim/Mods, but attendance at both is encouraged.

<sup>2</sup> The two routes both cover the syllabus of General Philosophy. Route A approaches the topics via readings from Descartes, Locke and Hume; route B by a variety of classic contemporary readings. Students need only attend one of the series, but are strongly encouraged to attend both.

<sup>3</sup> Lectures for Philosophy in the Supplementary Subject in History and Philosophy of Science, an optional paper in the natural sciences schools, are listed at the end of this section. The History lectures for this option are normally offered in Michaelmas Term.

<sup>4</sup> These lectures cover both topics on applied ethics for the 103 Ethics paper and the topics for the new paper 128 Practical Ethics (which will be first examined in 2018).
