

Philosophy Lecture List for Hilary Term 2022

- At undergraduate level, lectures will mostly be delivered live, with many “in person” at Radcliffe Humanities or Examination Schools (“Rad. Hum.” or “Schools” below), and some online. Here and there, an option might be covered by existing recordings. Graduate classes will take place live and mostly in person.
- The Philosophy Canvas intranet site will be made available to undergraduate and graduate students, and relevant sections for classes and lectures will appear there. The Canvas pages will contain a link for classes taking place online.
- Face coverings are essential for reducing the spread of COVID-19 and should be worn by all students and staff in all University buildings. For the latest guidance, see <https://www.ox.ac.uk/coronavirus/>.
- Where they are live, classes or lectures will begin at five minutes after the hour and end at five minutes before the next hour.
- The information below is subject to change. Please make sure that you check the Faculty’s website <http://www.philosophy.ox.ac.uk/lectures> for the most up-to-date information. Detailed course descriptions will be published in the Lecture Prospectus, available on that webpage.
- Please comment on our lectures using the online questionnaire at the same webpage.
- This information is correct as at 18 January 2022. You should check nearer to the start of term for changes in timings. In the event of any queries or mistakes, please contact James Knight.
